It appears the IRS prefers litigation over compromise. I tried to comply with your flawed interpretation and administration of the individual income tax laws, but my Offer in Compromise was rejected and more recently sustained by the Appeals Office. My resolve to secure truth and lawful treatment under the tax laws has been renewed. Because my Offer in Compromise was rejected I am not bound by any conditions therein.

This letter responds to both the Appeals Office notice and the three (3) intent to levy letters dated 11-23-2009. Because IRS has acted in "bad faith" regarding my Offer in Compromise I do reject your conclusions, assessments and penalties. Request is herein made under the Privacy Act, 5 USC 552a that all liability for tax years 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 be expunged from my records and all liens removed from my property.

Notice of Lien has already been entered in excess of the amounts you claim I owe. I will move the courts for removal of said notices if the IRS does not do so within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

Request for documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 USC 552:

- 1) The law that makes me liable for and requires me to pay individual income taxes.
- 2) The law that requires me to fill out a Form 1040 tax return.
- 3) The law authorizing issuance of a valid OMB control number for Form 1040 tax return.
- 4) Copy of my entire case file including notes and code interpretations.

The above requested documents are vitally important in determining whether I am required to file future Form 1040 tax returns and whether I should seek damages for fraud under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) 44 USC 3500-3520.

Sincerely,
